

In March, the LTP and Choral Society presented "Radio 3-R" a Dinner Theatre that was written and directed by Steve and Marge Kasten.

On March 25, 26 & 27, the Centralia High School Drama Club presented their spring musical "Peter Pan" on the stage of the Community Arts

Centralia Native, Barbara Parker-Helmer, performed her cabaret-style show: "Remembering Rosemary Clooney" on April 9th.

The front gallery held 2 exhibits in May; the Light & Lens Camera Club's "Spring Photography Exhibit", "followed by the "Centralia High School Art Show" pictured above.

Actors in Action presented Shakespeare's "Much Ado About Nothing" over 2 weekends, May 14, 15, 21 & 22.

In July, a 2009 Harley-Davidson Softail Cross Bones Motorcycle was given away to Jim Harting of Centralia who purchased the winning ticket for this years CCS Fund-Raiser Raffle.

The photos on these pages reflect a sampling of the many diverse programs and events that the Centralia Cultural Society has produced in the last few months.

In light of the state's depleted Arts funding and given today's uncertain economy, our Patron Membership now plays a greater role than ever in supporting the Centralia Cultural Society.

If you are a CCS Patron, "Thank You", Your membership is greatly appreciated!

If you are not a CCS Patron, Please consider becoming one!

Be a "Cheerleader" for the Arts, tell your friends and family about the Centralia Cultural Society, encourage them to become a Patron of the Arts

Your Community Arts Center is a Wonderful Asset to Centralia & the surrounding communities

Arts in Education partnered with Kaskaskia College to present the "Muntu Dancers" program to area school children.

Scenes from the summer children's theatre production of "The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe", June 25, 26 & 27.

Thank you to the various photographers including Brian Hunt and members of Light & Lens Camera Club, who shared their photos with the Area Arts.

